Lyon 2nd largest city in France

Both a major European city and capital of the Rhône-Alpes region, Lyon is France's second largest city. It attracts large numbers of visitors throughout the year for business and tourism. Ideally located between Northern and Southern Europe, Lyon has always been a major crossroad for exchange of all kinds. Two thousand years of history have left their mark on the cityscape, from Roman ruins to the most modern architecture styles. Lyon's heritage reflects different eras and tells the rich tale of a city that continues to evolve and change.

Why Lyon for a french language course?

- A big city but on a human scale
- Easy access (TGV, airport)
- An economically and culturally dynamic city
- Cost of living 30% cheaper than in Paris or the south of France
- In Lyon we speak French: Open and welcoming city, Lyon remains authentic, with no English spoken in shops or restaurants:
